

2008 NCSA Professional Development Certificates Awarded

The North Central Sociological Association awards Professional Development Certificates to faculty members who attend at least five designated teaching and professional development sessions at the annual meeting each year.

Hara Bastas, University of Cincinnati

Workshop: Scaffolding for Student Success
Active Learning Methods for Teaching about Social Inequality
Books that Help Us Teach
Scholarship of Teaching and Learning
Population Issues
Relationships and Experiences – Children, Social Agents, and Institutions

Sandra Schroer, Muskingum College

The Use of Film in Sex and Gender Classes
Preparing for the Job Market
Teaching About Stereotypes
Teaching Social Problems
Gender III
Sociology of Aging

Marilyn Simon, University of Cincinnati

Professionalism, Skills Match, and Job Satisfaction in Sociology
Workshop: Integrating Lecture, Web, and Community
Service Learning and Assessment
Teaching Poster Session
Fat Studies I
Understanding Victimization

Leslie Elrod, University of Cincinnati

Professionalism, Skills Match, and Job Satisfaction in Sociology
Workshop: Integrating Lecture, Web, and Community
Workshop: Scaffolding for Student Success
Assessment of Student Learning: Sharing Resources
Fat Studies I
Race and Everyday Life

Marcy R. Trew, Brown Mackie College

Preparing Students for Teaching
Teaching Poster Session
Assessment of Student Learning: Sharing Resources
Teaching About Stereotypes
Motherhood: Common Situations and Complex Realities
The Students Speak

Omer Durfee, Northern Michigan University

Professionalism, Skills Match, and Job Satisfaction in Sociology
Teaching About Controversial Topics in Sociology
The Students Speak: Integrating Lecture, Web, and Community
Beyond the Book: Teaching Tips
Teaching About Stereotypes
Population Issues
Cultural Understanding of Inequality II

Todd M. Callais, Denison University

Preparing Students for Teaching
Professionalism, Skills Match, and Job Satisfaction in Sociology
Teaching About Controversial Topics in Sociology
The Students Speak: Undergraduates Perceptions of Excellent Teaching
Stigma and Stigma Management
Framing Social Issues II

Robyn White, Cuyahoga Community College

The Students Speak: Undergraduates Perceptions of Excellent Teaching
Service Learning and Assessment
Greening the Campus
Teaching Social Problems
Environmental Sociology
Race and Everyday Life

Robert Shirilla, Cuyahoga Community College

Teaching About Controversial Topics in Sociology
The Students Speak: Undergraduates Perceptions of Excellent Teaching
Service Learning and Assessment
Greening the Campus
Teaching About Privilege and Oppression
Fat Studies II

Dawn Hall, Sinclair Community College

The Students Speak: Undergraduates Perceptions of Excellent Teaching
Beyond the Book: Teaching Tips
Assessment of Student Learning: Sharing Resources
Creating Curriculum from Scratch with a Deep Learning Focus
Sociology of Gender I
Occupations & Professions