NCSA ANNUAL MEETING IN DEARBORN

The theme of the annual meeting is

"The Sociological Way of Looking at the World: Research, Teaching, and Application"

The theme for this year's meeting is taken from the title of the 1975 book by Louis Schneider (1915-1979), who served as President of the NCSA predecessor organization, the Ohio Valley Sociological Society, in 1959-60.

Schneider was a professor of sociology of the University of Texas. His work on religion and social theory helped sociologists understand some of the turbulent social changes in the 1970s. NCSA members, make plans now to join us in April for the annual meeting in Dearborn, Michigan. Dearborn is a lively city, located in Michigan outside of Detroit. An added bonus is that the annual meeting will be held at the Hyatt Regency in Dearborn. This four star hotel is located just minutes from downtown Detroit and is in close proximity to the metro station.

Popular sights in Detroit, Michigan include the African American History Museum, as well as the Detroit Institute of Arts. Sports fans will be able to enjoy Detroit's Comerica Park, home of the 2006 American League Champion Detroit Tigers baseball team, which is within minutes of the hotel. If you are looking for a family activity, then Detroit Zoo is also a great option that is easily accessible from the Hyatt Regency, as is the Belle Isle, located in the middle of the Detroit River. Several museums and other attractions are close by in Dearborn; there are also entertainment options within the hotel.

Located inside the hotel are Giulio and Son's Italian restaurant, Perks Coffee Bar deli and carry-out, and Archimedes Bar. On the top floor of the Hyatt Regency is the Rotunda

Ballroom, which is a rotating restaurant that allows diners to see a bird's eye view of the city's skyline. For golfers, there are two 18-hole golf courses that are two and ten miles long. The Hyatt Regency is located at 600 Town Center Drive, (313)-593-1234 (dearborn.hyatt.com).

Make your reservations now!

2009 The Ruth and John Useem Plenary Address To be delivered by Irving Zeitlin

Irving Zeitlin is currently a Faculty Associate in the Centre for Ethics and Professor of Sociology at the University of Toronto. Zeitlin specializes in the history of social and political thought and in the sociology of religion. He is currently teaching SOC203 History of Social Theory.

Zeitlin has written several articles and chapters for edited collections and journals, but has devoted the bulk of his efforts to writing books. He is author of twelve books including Ancient Judaism (1984), Jesus and the Judaism of His Time (Polity Press, 1988), Plato's Vision: The Classical Origins of Social and Political Thought (Prentice Hall, 1993), Nietzsche: A Re-Examination (Polity Press, 1994), and Rulers and Ruled: Classical Political Theory from Plato to the Federalists (University of Toronto Press, 1997). Zeitlin's second book, Ideology and the Development of Sociological Theory (Prentice Hall, 1968) has now been in print for over 32 years. It has been translated into Spanish and Japanese. His first book, Marxism: A Re-Examination (Van Nostrand, 1967) was also translated into Japanese.

Zeitlin received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Wayne State University, while working first as a Junior Supervisor at the Detroit Jewish Community Centre and then as Assistant Director and Principal of the Sholem Aleichem Institute and School. Zeitlin then moved to Princeton University, where he completed a second Master's degree and was awarded his Doctorate. He also worked as Principal of the Hebrew school at the Princeton Jewish Centre. Zeitlin was awarded a National Science Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship, and then worked at France's Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique for a year. He also spent four years teaching at Indiana University, then later at Washington University in Missouri. He was University of Leicester's Visiting Senior Lecturer in Social Theory before returning to Washington University to chair the Department of Sociology. Since joining the faculty at the University of Toronto, Zeitlin has served a term as Chair and has spent another year abroad, serving as Visiting Professor of Sociology at Kwansei Gakuin University in Japan (1984-85). Since 1998, he has been the Coordinator of the Program in Ethics, Law and Society at U of T's Trinity College.

Innovations in Teaching Poster Session

Lissa Yogan is organizing an "Innovations in Teaching" poster session for this year's the NCSA conference. For this session, faculty or others teaching create a poster about an exercise, activity, assignment, and/or other things you do in the classroom. We ask that you develop a poster and bring at least 50 one-page handouts about your activity. This poster session has become very popular with our high school teachers and we would like a great turn out this year.

If you would like to participate, please send your poster idea to LissaYogan Valparaiso University, Lissa.Yogan@valpo.edu

NC$A Teaching Sessions

CONTACT: Lissa.Yogan@valpo.edu

If you would like to present in one of these sessions please contact the organizers as soon as possible. We ask for abstract and contact information. In general, each presentation is approximately 15 minutes and we encourage you to bring handouts to share with your colleagues. Our teaching sessions attract many new faculty and graduate students and we see this as a great opportunity to both examine the scholarship of teaching and learning as well as increase the pedagogical practices within sociology. Please contact the chair of the NCSA teaching section should you have questions about participating in the NCSA conference.

John F. Schnabel Distinguished Contributions to Teaching Award 2009 Call for Nominations

The NCSA Teaching Committee is calling for nominations (and re-nominations) for the 2008 The John F. Schnabel Distinguished Contributions to Teaching Award. This award may be given to an individual, a department, a program, or an institution. Individuals nominated for the award must be a member of the NCSA. Departments, programs, or institutions nominated for the award must be located in the NCSA region. The principal criterion for the award is excellence in some activity enhancing the teaching of Sociology for the NCSA or within the North Central region. As such, the "criteria" are intentionally flexible in order to accommodate the innovative and creative.

A partial list of the kinds of activities that would be considered includes:

- The sharing of pioneering innovations in curriculum design. Creative classroom activities, and/or development of instructional methods.
- 2. The development of especially creative instructional materials.
- 3. A distinguished record of publication and/or research on or about the teaching of Sociology.

- 4. A distinguished record of assuring a teaching emphasis at the NCSA by organizing research session on teaching, creating displays, chairing panels, conducting teaching workshops, and/or chairing roundtables on some teaching emphasis.
 - Faculty developmental efforts such as systematic in-service training of teachers or a distinguished record of preparing graduate students to teach.
- When making nominations for the award, nominators are asked to send as much of the following as possible:

5.

- 1. A letter of nomination outlining reasons for the nomination.
 - A vita and/or a listing of activities which have fostered better teaching of Sociology.
- 3. Documents supporting the nomination.

The more concrete and specific the information and documentation, the stronger the nomination will be. Nominators may want to notify the person the person being nominated and ask him or her to send appropriate supporting materials. Anyone who has been a nominator before is strongly encouraged to re-nominate that individual, department, program, or institution.

The deadline for nominations is January 31, 2009

Send nominations or address questions to: Lissa Yogan

Aida Tomeh Distinguished Service Award 2009 Call for Nominations

The Aida Tomeh Distinguished Service Award is an annual award recognizing the accomplishments an NCSA member in one of more of the following:

- 1. Service to the NCSA in a single truly outstanding activity, or
- 2. Service to the NCSA in many capacities and over a long period of time, or
- 3. Service to the NCSA throughout professional career.

When making nominations for the award, nominators are asked to send as much of the following as possible:

- 1. A letter of nomination outlining reasons for the nomination.
- 2. A vita and/or a listing of activities which have fostered better teaching of Sociology.3. Documents supporting the nomination.

The more concrete and specific the information and documentation, the stronger the nomination will be. Nominators may want to notify the person being nominated and ask him or her to send appropriate supporting materials. Anyone who has been a nominator before is strongly encouraged to re-nominate that individual, department, program, or institution.

Call for Proposals Editorship of Sociological Focus

The North Central Sociological Association is seeking proposals for the Editorship of its official journal, Sociological Focus. The search is not limited to the North Central region. The term of editor is for three years and the starting date is negotiable. The applicant should be either an active member of the North Central Sociological Association or willing to join the organization. The applicant should demonstrate past and continuing experience with the journal review process and publication.

Sociological focus is edited and published by the department of the editor in association with Paradigm Press. Editor's duties include, but are not limited to, receiving manuscripts, distributing manuscripts to reviews, decision-making on articles for publications, and communicating with authors as to strengths and weakness of their submissions. Sociological Focus has a long history of special issues focusing on important topics of interest to sociologists and other social scientists.

The publication of the journal is a joint venture between the NCSA and the applicant's department. The applicant's proposal should include a statement of specific departmental commitment to provide the editor with released time, an editorial assistant, office space for the journal, and supplies that include postage for required communication, necessary file cabinets, desks, chairs, work tables, a desktop computer (with internet access), a backup hard drive, and a laser printer. Also storage space for several boxes of past issues is necessary.

Proposals are to be directed to:

Dr. Kent Schwirian, Chair of the Publications Committee North Central Sociological Association Department of Sociology, The Ohio State University 238 Townshend Hall 1885 Neil Ave Mall, Columbus, Ohio 43210 An additional copy of the proposal should be e-mailed to schwirian.2@osu.edu

J. MILTON YINGER LIFETIME DISTINGUISHED CAREER AWARD 2009 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Nominations for the Milton Yinger Distinguished Career Award are due by January 31, 2009. Watch for the full description of the award on the web page. It describes the criteria for the award and materials needed to support nominations. Think about those senior faculty in your department or elsewhere or who are or were mentors or advisors along the way and who have made significant "scholarly contributions, public/applied sociology and/or contributions to the quality of sociological teaching and learning". They may still be active or emeritus.

This is the 3rd year for the award. Milton Yinger received it the first year, and Robert Perrucci received it last year. Let Harry know if you have questions.

Scholarly contributions—an extraordinary career of scholarship, expressed in publications, editorial work on behalf of sociological journals, and/or consultant

Public/Applied Sociology—an extraordinary career of applied sociological or public policy works:

- in a local community or in a national or regional agency;
- in public testimony, popular press publications, and other venues that impact public policy;
- in public service through elected or appointed office, such that the person's career has a beneficial impact on the life of a community.

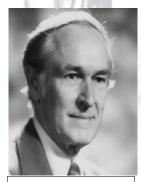

Contributions to the quality of sociological teaching and learning—a lifetime of distinguished contributions to sociological instruction and curriculum development through:

- the sharing of significant innovations in curriculum design, creative classroom activities, and/or development of instructional materials;
- advancement of the scholarship of teaching and learning as indicated in a distinguished record of publication and/or research on or about the teaching of sociology;
- a extraordinary contribution to other teachers of sociology through a distinguished record organizing research sessions on teaching, creating displays, chairing panels, conducting teaching workshops, in-service programs for teachers or graduate students, and/or chairing roundtables on some teaching emphasis; and/or
- exemplary service within the region, such as in doing external departmental reviews.

When making nominations for the award, nominators are asked to send as much of the following as possible:

- a. a letter of nomination outlining reasons for the nomination,
- b. a vita or a listing of activities which have advance the discipline of sociology,
- c. documents supporting the nomination,
- d. supporting letters.

The more concrete and specific the information and documentation, the stronger the nomination will be. Nominators may want to notify the person being nominated and ask them to send in appropriate supporting materials.

AWARD$

- Up to three awards will be given in each category. Division winners will receive a certificate in recognition of their award.
- Undergraduate division winners will receive a reimbursement of up to $100 for travel expenses incurred for traveling to the NCSA annual meeting April 16-18, 2009 in Dearborn.
- In the graduate division, the monetary award for reimbursement of expenses incurred for travel to the NCSA annual meeting April 16-18, 2009 in Dearborn, MI will be distributed as follows: 1st place receives $150, 2nd place receives $125, and 3rd place receives $100. Additionally, the first place winner in the graduate division will be honored as the recipient of the John Seidler Award and the winner's paper will be considered for publication in Sociological Focus.
- Co-authored or multiple authored winners will share the specified monetary award.
- All award winners will be honored at a special time during the annual meeting of the NCSA in Dearborn.

COMPETITION RULES

- 1. The maximum length of a paper is 5000 words (approximately 18-20 pages). An abstract of no more than 100 words must also be included.
- 2. The title page must include the author's name, institutional affiliation, divisional status (graduate or undergraduate), email address, and the name, address, and telephone number of the student's advisor/mentor.
- 3. Papers with multiple authors will be considered provided that all authors are students in the same division category.
- 4. Only papers written while the author(s) was a student are eligible for consideration.
- 5. The contestant must submit four hard copies of the paper. We do not accept electronic copies.
- 6. Winners are expected to present their papers at the 2009 annual meeting to receive the monetary award.
- 7. All papers submitted by graduate students will be automatically included in the regular program.
- 8. Undergraduate students are encouraged to submit a copy of their papers to the program chair to be included in the regular program.
- 9. For information, please contact Carolette Norwood at 513.556.0358 or email to Carolette.Norwood@uc.edu.
- 10. For information on NCSA, please visit our web site: http://www.ncsanet.org/

JUDGING

A panel of judges will blind review papers. The judges will employ conventional scholarly criteria -- including thesis development, theoretical application, methodological application, discussion/findings, and mechanics -- in their deliberations. The graduate student paper award will also be reviewed for its potential for publication. The awards committee reserves the right not to award any or all prizes in a division should papers not be of sufficient quality or of sufficient number.

2009 North Central Student Sociology Conference (Formerly the Midwest Student Sociology Conference)

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

The North Central Sociological Association is excited to announce that the Midwest Student Sociology Conference has been incorporated into the NCSA's annual conference and is now known as the North Central Student Sociology Conference (NCSSC).

At the NCSA annual conference, April 16-19, 2009 in Dearborn, Michigan, the NCSSC will give both graduate and undergraduate students the opportunity to present their research and to receive feedback from other students, professors, and professional sociologists. Additionally, students will have the opportunity to attend the many research and teaching sessions that are traditionally part of the NCSA's annual conference.

The North Central Student Sociology Conference cordially invites undergraduate and graduate students in sociology, anthropology, criminology, and related fields to submit their original work for presentation at the April conference. Submissions will be divided thematically and each student session will have 4-5 student presenters with a faculty facilitator.

Please announce the new North Central Student Sociology Conference to any faculty and students who would be interested. Abstracts should be emailed or sent to:

Jay Howard Awarded 2008 Hans O. Maulsch Award for Distinguished Contributions to Undergraduate Sociology

Jay Howard, Professor of Sociology and Vice Chancellor and Dean at Indiana University-Purdue University Columbus, has been awarded the 2008 Hans O. Mauksch Award for Distinguished Contributions to Undergraduate Sociology. The award was presented by the American Sociological Association Section on Teaching and Learning at its annual conference in Boston on August 1, 2008.

Howard is a former president of the North Central Sociological Association and a member and past president of the Bartholomew Consolidated School Corporation Board of Trustees. Howard, a native of Mishawaka, earned a B.A. from Indiana University South Bend and a doctorate in sociology from the University of Notre Dame.

In his 16-year career at IUPUC, Howard has earned 15 teaching-related honors and awards, presented nearly 40 papers, sponsored more than 40 student paper presentations at sociology conferences, and been published in more than 45 refereed publications, textbooks, and other educational media. Part of his research has established him as a nationally recognized leader in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning in Sociology. His other research interest, which deals with religion and popular culture, have led to a popular book entitled Apostles of Rock: The Splintered World of Contemporary Christian Music (co-authored with John M. Streck).

ABOUT THE NC$A

The objectives of the NCSA are to further the development of sociology as a scientific and scholarly discipline through stimulation and promotion of:

- 1.) Scientific research in its defined subject matter area;
- 2.) Effective teaching of the subject matter at all levels of educational endeavor;
- 3.) The widest possible and feasible utilization of the knowledge and skills of sociologists and the findings of scientific sociological research by public and private agencies in all relevant social policy issues;
- 4.) Interchange and cooperative relations among persons and organizations engaged in the scientific study of society;
- 5.) Any and all such other acts as may be deemed conductive to these ends.

Membership in the NCSA shall be open to all persons interested in and subscribing to its objectives and who have been awarded a graduate degree in Sociology or in closely related fields from accredited institutions. Persons lacking these qualifications may also become members if they can present evidence of professional competence and commitment to the field of Sociology.
